ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am very indebted to the staff of the Maryland State Archives located at 350 Rowe Boulevard, Annapolis, Maryland. They have been extremely helpful in assisting me to locate several elusive records. Even with their expert help and assistance there were still several Simmont Family Records which appeared in various indexes but which even collectively we were unable to locate.

My sincerest gratitude goes out to Robert Stanley Orrell of South Daytona, Florida, for the great work which he has accomplished in tracing and coordinating the various branches of the Orrell family and for serving as Editor on this my seventh book. Bob has co-authored two of these books and has served as Editor on Orrell Family Records at the Maryland State Archives as well as this book. I also thank Terence Orrell of England.

I would certainly be remiss if I did not thank Ella Priscilla Simmont, Sandra Marie Simmont and other various members of the Simmont family who have supplied me with much needed information on their branches of the Simmont family.

Special thanks go out to my parents Reverdy Lewin Orrell, Jr. and Jean Catherine Malle who support me in all of my undertakings. My mom adds quite a bit more than just moral support and frequently accompanies me from one end of Baltimore City, Baltimore County, and Anne Arundel County to another in my research endeavors. She is an old pro in dealing with cemetery personal and in helping me locate tombstones and other information. We have spent many an afternoon in 100° heat and weeds up to our waist searching for 'lost' relatives.

Another special thanks go out to Frank & Kim Malle who made a very generous donation to help underwrite the publication of this book.

I have been extremely fortunate to have a supportive, loving family. My wife Carol has stood behind me in all of my Genealogical and Masonic pursuits. My son Reb, without complaint, has performed many of my family obligations, allowing me the time to research, write and complete this book.

Lastly, I would like to thank my close friends Jerry Gavin and Norman G. Williams. Jerry has constantly assisted in solving my computer problems and Norman has always been willing to help in any way possible. I value their friendship immensely.

FOREWORD

The book you now hold in your hands is a classic. The Simmont Family is a very small but unique family to the Baltimore area and Reverdy Lewin Orrell has done the family a great justice by his tireless research and putting this book together. Having done research at the Maryland State Archives for two summers, I was all too familiar with the task involved in reading and transcribing the old documents and microfilm. Not only is the old handwriting hard to read, but the wrinkles, stains, tears, and other marks make the job almost impossible. I have authored several genealogical books myself, and I am well aware of the time and expense involved in a project such as this.

The book is in two sections. The first section is a chronological history of the Simmont Family using entries from the Baltimore City Directories from the earliest entry to date. The second section list all known descendants of David Simmont. Reverdy Lewin Orrell has taken great strides to document each event such as births, deaths, marriages and City Directory listings. Anyone can write a book and put in many facts, but without the proper documentation the facts become only fiction. Not only are the documents transcribed in the book, a copy of the actual document is shown.

Each person has their own identification number after their name. This is the actual number used in the Simmont Family Database on the computer. Also, each person has their line of ascent listed by name and ID number giving the reader a look at the entire line of ancestors at one glance.

Anyone with ties to this family will certainly want to own a copy of the History of the Simmont Family.

INTRODUCTION

We live in a world that is full of 'disclaimers'. Everyone knows what a 'disclaimer' is. Look at the FINE PRINT on any warranty, contract, lease that you may have. We even see disclaimers in books that we read and movies and TV shows that we watch. You've all seen them before. One common example is "All characters are fictitious. Any resemblance to actual persons, living or dead, is purely coincidental."

This book contains no such disclaimer. Rather it is an attempt to completely document the Simmont Family of Baltimore, Maryland and identify every Simmont who has ever lived in the United States. It is the work of a family historian for the use of those of the Simmont name and their descendants and for other historians, who may find parts of it of use. It claims no great pretensions to scholarship, but is at least the most complete attempt at the history of the Simmont family so far written. Remember that you need not have the surname of Simmont to be a member of the Simmont family. As long as your parent, grandparent, great grandparent etc. had the Simmont surname - you are a member of the Simmont family.

In a history as complex as that dealing with hundreds of individuals (many with the same name) there are bound to be errors and omissions. I hope that they will be minor and forgiven by my readers. The pedigrees here are printed for the first time - all the result of original research and drawn from various sources. All conclusions have only been reached after careful consideration of known facts.

Genealogy is a branch of History. The word 'history' is actually a compound word "His & Story" - "His Story" which literally translated means "God's Story" which is the "Story of Mankind". Genealogy is much more specific and personal in nature. It is "Your Story" or "Your History".

It is no coincidence that the copyright date for this book is 24 November 1994 which happens to be Thanksgiving Day. That is a day when families draw close together and spend much of the day catching up with what's happening with the rest of the family members. It is only fitting that day be chosen as the copyright day for this family genealogy.

We live today in a world of 'Political Correctness' where you dare not say or write anything that may be offensive to any 'group' of people with the exception of course, of heterosexual white Christian males. While they founded and built this country they are as low as you can get on the totem pole today. This book is full of heterosexual white Christian males of the Simmont family who looked after and cared for members of their family as well as the community in general. You need only read the will of Oliver C. Simmont to understand what I am saying.

If I were to write a history of World War II, I would be a poor historian if I did not include the bombing of Pearl Harbor or the dropping of the Atomic bomb. History is the collection of names, dates, places and events. Yet today, even in our own country, we find 'politically correct' art exhibits. Recently a nationally funded art show featured photos of the 'History of World War II'. Surprisingly there were no photos of Pearl Harbor nor any of Japan after the A-Bomb was dropped. This it was felt might be offensive to the Japanese.

History and genealogy should be properly and accurately reported. A 'politically correct' genealogy would not include any cases of divorce, remarriage or illegitimacy all of which are simply facts of life and death. Nor would it include persons who 'didn't want to be included in the book' for whatever reason. There is no attempt in this book to embarrass anyone and great care has been exercised not to make anyone feel uncomfortable. My desire is only to document the Simmont family as best as I can.

I imagine that my cousin Frederick Simmont would be proud of me right now. He obviously did not concede to political correctness in the 1860's. He was arrested for being a Southern sympathizer and imprisoned at Fort McHenry in the heart of Baltimore City.

I have never met a member of the Simmont family who had any difficulty in speaking their mind. I am proud to be one of them.

EQUIPMENT USED IN RESEARCHING, WRITING, AND PREPARING THIS BOOK

During this project I used the following computer equipment and computer software:

- ★ 286-AT IBM Compatible Computer (Laptop) operating at 12 MHz, containing 1 meg RAM, 40 meg Hard Drive, and VGA Backlit Black and White Monitor.
- ★ 486-AT IBM Compatible Computer operating at 40 MHz, containing 8 megs RAM, 435 meg Hard Drive, 2 megs Video RAM, Super VGA Color Monitor and Double Speed CD-ROM.
- ★ Panasonic^{®1} KP-P4420 Laser Printer with ½ meg RAM.
- ★ WordPerfect[®] 5.1² - computer word processing program.
- ★ Publisher's Powerpak^{®3} (Scalable soft fonts for WordPerfect).
- ★ PAF 2.3 (Personal Ancestral File)^{®4} - computer genealogy database program.
- ★ Census db^{®5} - computer genealogy database program for Census information.
- ★ Microsoft Windows^{®6} - computer multi-tasking software .

I would estimate that I have spent about 1,000 hours in researching and writing this book. Additionally, several hundred dollars were spent making copies of microfilm from microfilm reader-printers. Not all documents were available on microfilm. In those cases they were photostated by the Maryland State Archives at a cost of $ 2.00 per page.

All books were xeroxed and bound by the author. Hardbound copies were professionally bound by Library Binding Services of Waco, Texas.

BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE SIMMONT FAMILY AND OF BASIC GENEALOGY TERMS

It is unknown exactly where the Simmont Family originated or the origin of the derivative of the Simmont name. It would appear that the family is of European descent although it can not be determined from what country. The name could be English, Polish, Czech, Austrian, or Hungarian. The only clue I have is found in the 1920 Maryland Census. A James Simmont who was actually listed as James Simont was found living alone in Allegheny County, Maryland. He came to the United States in 1912 from Hungary. Having settled in Allegheny County and not in Baltimore City or Baltimore County, it would appear that he is not related to our particular Simmont Family of Baltimore, Maryland. It is unknown if the Simmont name as we know it today was originally something else or if it was 'shortened' or 'Americanized'. The 'Americanization' of a name is very common. Persons arriving in this country, at any point in history, are generally not native to the American tongue. They do not understand correctly what the immigration official is asking them in regards to the spelling or pronunciation of their name. We must also consider the fact that the immigration official (or census taker, court clerk, etc.) recorded names as best they could. They wrote it phonetically the way it sounded to them. Thus we find many early records as Seamont or Seemont. My grandfather is Frank Anthony Malle, Sr. However research shows that the surname is not Malle but rather Mallej. It has also been recorded as Malley or Maly - all the same surname just recorded differently.

My surname of Orrell has changed form several times over the years. Its derivative is Ore Hill meaning 'one that worked on a hill in the ore mining industry'. We have all heard of the great jockey Willie Shoemaker. You can easily determine what his ancestors did for a living. Remember that Adam and Eve had no last names. In fact, most persons of the Bible had no surnames. Some were known by more than one name such of Joseph of Arimathaea designating that Joseph was of the town called Arimathaea. Eventually as the world became more populated surnames were necessary to distinguish persons. In time middle names were also added as well as Sr., Jr., III, IV, etc to help distinguish persons of the same name within families.

Extensive searches in various books on heraldry have been performed without finding any reference to the Simmont family or any derivative of the Simmont name. Heraldry is that branch of history which investigates 'family coats of arms'. It is not an American institution although Coats of Arms have been used by American families from early colonial times. George Washington, himself, used one. Coat of Arms came into general use about the time of the Crusades, as a matter of expediency to recognize armored warriors in battle. Horses and dogs also wore armor. A popular misconception is that coats of arms were only used by European nobility. This is not true. Another common misconception is that every family of respectable social standing must have a coat of arms somewhere. Actually, prominent families may have come from humble immigrants and a laborer may be a descendent of a family of prominence.

It does appear that the Simmont family arrived in Baltimore before the 1800's. David Simmont the progenitor of the Simmont family was born before 1790 and probably closer to 1785. He is the first Simmont located in the United States. The family spent many years engaged in the brickmaking industry and Simmont descendants of today still remember seeing the brickmaking yards along what is currently Washington Blvd.

The Simmont family appears unique to Maryland. While documented in this country for over 200 years they have constantly remained in Maryland concentrated in mainly Baltimore City, Baltimore County, and Anne Arundel County. They have rarely been located elsewhere in this country. I have spent hours at the ~~Daughters~~ of the American Revolution Library in Washington, D.C. searching census indexes from around the country. I have never located a Simmont outside of Maryland in any census record. Surprisingly there are few land records for the Simmont family and only a few recorded Last Will and Testaments. I could find no record of a Simmont in the War of 1812, nor in the War Between the States although Frederick Simmont was arrested for being a Confederate sympathizer.

Genealogy research has been tremendously aided by the advent of CD-ROMs. These CD-ROMs containing data are exactly like the audio CD-ROMs which have replaced 33 $\frac{1}{8}$ record albums and are quickly replacing audio cassette tapes. I have a two CD-ROM set entitled 'Phone Disc USA' containing the equivalent of 5,600 - 5,800 residential phone books across the country and about 80 million names. I only find 15 listings of Simmont in this entire database. All are from Maryland and there are only 10 different addresses. Naturally this database only contains listings for published home numbers. I do find one SIMMOTT in Michigan, two SEMONT in Texas, one SEAMONT in West Virginia and two other SIMONT listings. There is another unrelated family by the name of SINNOTT which probably has over 1,000 listings. Therefore you will see that the Simmont family surname is very small and still limited to the State of Maryland.

Another useful CD-ROM I frequently use is a two CD-ROM set entitled the Social Security Death Benefit Records which contains approximately 47 million names through June 1992. It contains the records of those individuals for whom a lump sum payment was made by the Social Security Administration. The manufacture states that missing data may occur in some entries when it was not supplied by the local Social Security Administration Office to headquarters. Also some missing entries exist in the 1930's, 1940's, 1950's and 1960's. While the above cited Phone Disc USA only contains persons with listed phone numbers this database contains every Simmont with a Social Security Number who died and had a lump sum payment made to his family. Even so there are only 16 Simmonts located. I also show only one Simmot, one Seamont, and three Simonts. We are certainly dealing with an extremely small family. While the present day base of the Simmont family increases with the birth of every descendant of David Simmont, the actual number of persons with the Simmont surname continues to remain small.

In nine generations David Simmont has 277 descendants. Counting spouses there are 414 descendants. I have documented 137 persons born with the Simmont surname. Seventy two (72) have been males with the remaining sixty five (65) being females.

I will now briefly attempt to discuss some of the various genealogical sources I have used in researching this book. In addition to my personal knowledge of persons herewithin, I have interviewed many persons who also have contributed names, dates, places and family relationships. Eventually you reach a point that you must turn to other avenues of research. I therefore will briefly talk about some of the sources cited in this book.

Naturally we are all aware of birth and death certificates. For the most part birth certificates in Maryland started in 1875. In Maryland, birth certificates are restricted for about 100 years meaning the only birth certificates available for genealogical use are those covering the period 1875 - 1890. I have found no Simmont birth records from that period.

Death certificates began about the same time as birth certificates. They are restricted in the State of Maryland for about twenty years. I have located several through many hours of research and have included them throughout this book. Pleased be advised they are very helpful but often times contain very inaccurate information. Information is given at a very stressful time and often the person supplying the information does not know the correct information.

Newspaper obituary notices seem to be a better source of information but are sometimes difficult to locate. There is no 'running index' for the Baltimore Sunpapers containing names appearing in obituary notices. You must know the death date to begin your search in the newspaper. Often times an obituary notice was not published.

The Baltimore City Directory is a tremendous source of information. The Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore City has copies of the actual Baltimore City Directories from about 1796 - 1964. While some years are missing they are very consistent from 1799 - 1930 and also have directories from 1936, 1937, 1940, 1942, 1955, 1958, 1958, 1959, 1961, and 1964. These directories are not allowed to be xeroxed. To date I have not located any Baltimore City Directories covering the years 1931 - 1935 and 1943 - 1954. The Baltimore City Directory typically listed a man's name, occupation, and home address. Sometimes his business address was listed. Starting about 1922 wives were also listed. I have found the City Directory to be one of the best research tools for Baltimore City and have created long lists for every direct line surname. Amazingly, I have discovered several of my ancestral families were living in close proximity to each other many years before they were joined by marriage. This was discovered by finding the addresses in the Baltimore City Directory and then using the Sanborn Fire Maps for the closest time period.

The correct terminology is 'City Directory'. 'City Directories' contain listings for different locations. Thus the 'Baltimore City Directory' is actually a 'City Directory' for the greater Baltimore Area and is not entirely restricted to 'Baltimore City'. The term 'City' is used to describe a metropolitan area and does not necessarily limit it self to an 'incorporated city'. I need to stress that point because 'Baltimore City' while originally incorporated in 1796, was not separated from Baltimore County as a governmental unit until 1851.

The following is a 'Brief History of the Federal Census' which I wrote as an introduction for Robert Stanley Orrell's book 'The Orrell Family in the U.S. Census'. It is reproduced, in part:

The first federal census was taken in the United States in 1790 as a result of a Constitutional provision that 'Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included with this Union, according to their respective Numbers .. The actual Enumeration shall be made within three Years after the first Meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent Term of ten Years, in such Manner as they shall by Law direct ..'

Our first Federal Census of 1790 did exactly what it was designed to do - count the population. It did this within limited age categories by sex and did go one step further by listing the names of the heads of families, a practice continued for several decades, up to and including the 1840 Federal Census.

The greatest changes in the Federal Census forms came about in 1850. The entire format was altered from previous years. In the preceding census's the family was the primary unit with each family given one line on the census form. Due to the efforts of Lemuel Shattuck of Massachusetts, this was changed in the 1850 census when each individual citizen became the primary unit. In the 1840 census a family of twelve would be recorded on 1 line with only the head of household's name listed. In the 1850 census this same family would comprise 12 lines with each family member's name listed.

I should also report that some of the 1790, 1800 and 1810 Federal Census returns are missing as a result of the fire in Washington, D.C. set by the British during the War of 1812. Also, sadly, most of the 1890 Federal Census returns do not exist as a result of a fire in the Commerce Department building on January 21, 1921. While not all returns were burned in the fire, most were so badly damaged that Congress authorized their disposal. Some records have remained but they are few and far between.

However part of a special enumeration does exist for the 1890 Federal Census. In 1890 the census taker actually carried two enumeration books when counting the census. The one was the regular book which was destroyed during the fire of 1921. The other book enumerated Union Army Veterans of the Civil War. However this enumeration is also incomplete. Those 14 states and territories alphabetically from A through Kansas (and part of Kentucky) have been lost. However those that remain are very helpful and include the veteran's name (also the widow's name if the veteran was deceased), his rank, company, regiment (or vessel), enlistment and discharge dates, length of service in days, months and years, post office address, nature of any disability, and other remarks. I believe that only such record thus documented for the Orrell family is my great great grandfather Edward V. Orrell of Baltimore, Maryland, although it would appear that several other records should exist.

You might question the fact that 'If the census is taken every ten years, why in the year 1994 do we only have information from 1920 and earlier? Surely it doesn't take that much work to release that census?' The answer deals not with the length of time needed to release the census but rather with the aspect of confidentiality of the information from within the census. A letter from the Bureau of the Census to the LDS Genealogical Society dated 12 January 1960 addressed this question in part by stating 'At the present (1960) there are approximately 30 million persons who were living at the time of the Census of 1900. Most of these people were living in the United States at that time and, presumably were included in that census. Some of them no doubt were living in institutions at the time of the census; others were living in unusual family arrangements which they may prefer not to be disclosed. The possibility that such facts would be revealed, even after a substantial period of years, might be a source of embarrassment to some families.'

At present (1994) the most current Federal Census available for research is the 1920 Census which was released during 1992-93. The 1930 census will probably be released around the year 2002.

Lastly, I would like to clear up a few common misconceptions regarding the concept of 'cousins'. Siblings (brothers and sisters) have a common parent; first cousins have a common grandparent; second cousins have a common great grandparent; third cousins have a common great-great grandparent; fourth cousins have a common great-great-great grandparent. This procedure expands as you connect with families further back in time and are able to make the connection. To give you a more detailed explanation I will point out a cousin of mine whom you all have heard of - Pres. Harry S Truman. We are 8th cousins, both descending from Richard Cheney. My direct line goes Reverdy Lewin Orrell, III¹⁰, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, Jr.⁹, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, Sr.⁸, Florence E. Stewart⁷, Richard Benson Stewart⁶, Elizabeth Benson⁵, Elizabeth Cheney⁴, Isiah Cheney³, Charles Cheney², and Richard Cheney¹. President Harry S Truman's line is Harry S Truman¹⁰, John Anderson Truman⁹, Mary Jane Holmes⁸, Ann Drusilla Tyler⁷, Robert Tyler⁶, Edward Tyler, Jr.⁵, Elizabeth Duvall⁴, Elizabeth Ijams³, Elizabeth Cheney², and Richard Cheney¹. Richard Cheney is our great-great-great-great-great-great-great grandfather (7th great grandfather) making us 8th cousins.

Nearly everyone, including many genealogists, make the mistake of calling their grandfather's brother their 'great uncle'. There is no such thing as a GREAT AUNT or GREAT UNCLE. Think about this very carefully. Your grandfather's brother or sister is on the same generation as your grandparent. Therefore this person is your GRAND AUNT or GRAND UNCLE, not great aunt or great uncle. Your great-grandfather's brother or sister is on the same generation as he is and is therefore your GREAT-GRAND AUNT or GREAT-GRAND UNCLE.

The matter of 'once removed' 'twice removed', etc. is very confusing. Without going into a lengthy discussion of this particular subject the crux of the matter deals with different generations levels. You are not on the same generation as your children, your parents, or your grandparents. That is easily to comprehend but it gets very confusing when talking about cousins on different generations. It would take too much space, at this time to delve into the 'removed' area when dealing with cousins.

In any event, it is not the purpose of this book to serve as a primer for genealogy principals and research methods. It is however necessary for the reader to understand a few of the minor principals as explained above. So sit back, relax, and enjoy reading about the History of the Simmont Family of Baltimore, Maryland.

Chronological History of the Simmont Family of Baltimore, Maryland

The following represents a chronological history of the Simmont family in Baltimore, Maryland. This listing has taken several years to compile and includes all known entries from the Baltimore City Directory. The Baltimore City Directory is the forerunner to the modern day telephone book and was published from about 1699 until about 1964. It was not published in every year, nor are all years available. All entries from the Baltimore City Directory are very easy to spot in the following list. Those entries list the person's name, occupation, and residence. Sometimes they also contain the name of their business and spouse's name. For instance:

1880 Charles (Edward Simmont & Son), 90 N. Carrollton Ave
1926 Charles W. (Margaret), packer, h. Foerster nr Hollins Ferry Rd, Mt Winans

In the below listing you will find a year followed by '(No Simmont listings located)'. This indicates that a Baltimore City Directory has been located for that year but that no members of the Simmont family were found, hence the listing of '(No Simmont listings located)'.

This list also consists of the various birth dates, marriage dates and death dates from members of the Simmont and its extended family. In many cases I have estimated the birth, marriage or death year. In those listings you will find the phrase 'Approximate year' listed. Listings under a given year are usually in the following order: Baltimore City Directory, Birth, Marriage, Death, and Census. Census records are only found in the years 1860, 1880, 1900 and 1920. I have tried to keep all of the type of listings separated by a blank line. In some cases you will see a birth, marriage or death listing followed by (Approximate year). This indicates that records point to an approximate year.

Throughout this list when a person has clearly been identified their RIN {Random Identification Number} is added within {French brackets}. This is a randomly computer generated number (much like a random lotto number) and has no significance other than helping to keep the family members separated. For instance, the Simmont family contains persons by the name of William, David, and George and without such Random Identification Numbers they would be difficult to separate especially when given the fact that there were several William, David, and Georges living at the same time and engaging in the same occupation !

The following list brings many of family lines to the present date. In bringing any of the female Simmonts family lines forward the Simmont surname is lost and the husband's name is carried forth. When presenting births in such situations I list the child's name followed by the Simmont descendant and their spouse. In the sample below Rebecca Lynn Burr {176} is the daughter of Margaret Theresa Chick {58} who is a member of the Simmont family being the daughter of Theresa Rose Simmont {11}.

20 June Birth - Rebecca Lynn Burr {176}, daughter of Margaret Theresa Chick {58} & Ronald Pierson Burr, Sr. {68}

In addition to listings from the Baltimore City Directory and births, marriages and deaths I have also included listings from the Federal Census which is taken at the beginning of every decade starting with 1790 and continuing to the present day. Unfortunately the collected information is only available for researchers from 1790 - 1920. Census data from 1930 to the present is restricted information at present. The 1930 Federal Census will not be released to the public until about the year 2004. Actual information from the 1840 and earlier census is very limited with only the 'Head of Household' being listed by name. While there were Simmonts in Baltimore before 1850, (No Simmont listings located) were located in the Federal Census before that time.

Throughout the listings of births, marriages, and deaths a woman's maiden name is carried forth. If her maiden name is not known, her name and {RIN} are followed by (Maiden name unknown). The listings from the Baltimore City Directory, are as printed and in many cases contain the wife's married name.

In the below listing the Baltimore City Directory entries are enumerated before the other entries. In some cases you will find a listing such as 1817-1818. This indicated that only one Baltimore City Directory was published covering a two year period. There were different publishers of the Baltimore City Directory and in some cases there were two different directories published in the same year.

One thing to keep in mind when examining the following list is that the information printed in any Baltimore City Directory was collected in the previous year. For instance, the information found in the 1886 directory was collected sometime in 1885 which can sometimes cause confusion. Charles Melvin Simmont {287} died 21 October 1885; however he is found listed in the 1886 directory.

Descendants of David Simmont

How To Follow The Next Section

Genealogy or Family History books are generally set up either one of two ways. One way is to start with a particular person and trace their ancestors backward in time. This will be the method use in my next book which will start with my son, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV and document his parents, grandparents, great grandparents, great-great grandparents, etc. Thus far 137 direct line ancestors have been located, some going back 13 generations within the State of Maryland. The other is the more common type family history book which starts with a particular person and traces their descendants to the present day. This is that type book. We start with David Simmont {278} and try and document every descendant to the present day.

This gets very complicated at times, especially when families use a name over and over. Within the Simmont family we find several Davids, Williams and Alfred (Alfret) and Georges. In some families I have seen a man have 5 sons and name one of them after himself. Then all 5 sons have each have a son that they name after the father. Thus you might have the grandfather John, a son John, and 5 grandsons named John - all living at the same time.

As stated in the first section of this book, each person has a RIN (Random Identification Number) which appears after their name in French Brackets { }. The index at the back of this book is set up the same way and you are easily able to locate any person within this book through the index. (See the index starting on page ?).

There are several ways of reading this section entitled Descendants of David Simmont. The first is to just start with David Simmont and read everything page by page. Of course most people will want to see the section dealing with themselves first and their particular branch of the Simmont family. In that case merely turn to the index and locate yourself. Then turning to the page you are on you will see your particular ancestral line. All lines are documented back to David Simmont {278} so everyone will wind back up on his page eventually. You will notice, for instance, that I have included everyone's complete ancestral line directly after their name. This makes it easier for you to see your place in the Simmont family. For instance:

This above listing documents Becky completely back to David Simmont {278}. We see that her Random Identification Number is {176}. The ⁷ in superscript form after her RIN indicates that she is 7 generations below her great-great-great-great grandfather David Simmont {278}. Becky can then find her mother Margaret Theresa CHICK {58}⁶ in the index, and so on.

David Simmont {278} had six children. This book is set up in a fashion that documents all of a person's descendants before moving on to the next child. All of Frederick Simmont {217} descendants are completely documented before the book moves on to John Simmont {279}. All of his descendants are completely documented before moving onto David Simmont {252}, etc.

To assist the reader I would suggest that you:

- 1. Locate yourself in the index.

Descendants of David Simmont

- 2. Turn to that page in this section of the book that documents your ancestral line.
- 3. Read your ancestral line noting who is the second generation in your Simmont line. Note this person's RIN { }.
- 4. Return to this page and note the page number where your second generation descendency line begins.
- 5. Read about the life and David Simmont and his wife Harriet which begins on page 44.
- 6. Turn to the page where your second generation descendency begins. At this point you will be placed in the section which deals with your particular Simmont branch. You can then start reading all about your particular branch of the family. Eventually you will come to the section which documents the descendants of the next child of David Simmont {278}.

While I strongly advise that you read about all of the Simmont branches I'm sure that most people will want to start with their own branch first. Remember that you are related to all descendants of David Simmont, even those in the other branches.

As promised (see # 4 above), here is the list of the pages on which the descendants of David Simmont's children begin:

		Descendants start of page
M	i.	Frederick SIMMONT {217} 45
M	ii.	John SIMMONT {279} 83
M	iii.	David SIMMONT {252} 83
M	iv.	William SIMMONT {261} 187
F	v.	Mary A. SIMMONT {254} 200
M	vi.	Samuel SIMMONT {251} 201

As you can see there is quite a bit more information on Frederick Simmont {217}, David Simmont {252}, and William Simmont {261} then on John Simmont {279}, Mary A. Simmont {254}, and Samuel Simmont {251}.

Frederick Simmont has 12 descendants in 3 generations. Counting spouses there are 17 persons total. David Simmont has 231 descendants in 8 generations. Counting spouses there are 355 persons total. William Simmont has 27 descendants in 5 generations. Counting spouses there are 33 persons total.

While I have made an exhaustive attempt to locate and document everyone, unfortunately persons have been missed and others have not been identified. You will notice at certain places in this book that I have a name followed by a { ? } indicating I just didn't know where they fit into the scope of the family. There were several such occurrences of this type in the listings of the Baltimore City Directory. During the final phase of research letters were sent to all persons located in PhoneDisc USA. Most went unanswered. These present day Simmonts could have really helped 'filled in the blanks' and provided much need documentation but unfortunately couldn't care less about their Simmont family heritage.

Descendants of David Simmont

David SIMMONT {278}¹ was born before 1790. He married Harriet {253} (Maiden name unknown) about 1810. She was born before 1790.

They had 6 children:

M	i.	Frederick SIMMONT {217}	b. about 1812	d. 21 March 1888
M	ii.	John SIMMONT {279}	b. about 1816
M	iii.	David SIMMONT {252}	b. about 1818	d. after 1880
M	iv.	William SIMMONT {261}	b. 15 March 1818	d. 24 August 1899
F	v.	Mary A. SIMMONT {254}	b. about 1820	d. after 1847
M	vi.	Samuel SIMMONT {251}	b. about 1837	d. 16 March 1848

In researching the Simmont family of Baltimore, Maryland, I was quickly able to see that the above mentioned David Simmont {278} was clearly the progenitor of the Simmont family. I could find no one before him or within his generation. The above cited 6 children are of the next generation and are placed together as siblings.

Harriet {253} died after 16 March 1848.

NOTES for Harriet {253} follow: Source: Obituary of son, Samuel Simmont {251} (see page 201).

David SIMMONT {278} died after 16 March 1848.

NOTES for David SIMMONT {278} follow: There are several listings in the Baltimore City Directory for various David Simmonts at different times. The first Simmont ever located in the Baltimore City Directory is David Simmont, brickmaker, Washington south side adjoining the run in Ridgely's Addition in 1824. As this David Simmont would have to be at least 24 years old to be listed as a head of household and in the Directory he would have had to be born before 1800. As he is believed to be the father of Frederick Simmont {217} born 1812 it is believed that this David Simmont was probably born before 1790. Marriage date is purely a guess. Son Frederick Simmont {217} was born in 1812 and another believed son, William Simmont {261}, was born in 1818. The others that are believed to be sons are placed between them and the marriage date was set about 1810.

The 1824 listing for David Simmont {278} appears to be his only entry in the Baltimore City Directory.

A complete listing of David Simmonts in the Baltimore City Directory follows:

[Throughout this book names have been set in bold type with the exception of listings in the Baltimore City Directory in this section. This is due to the number of names in this section]

1824 David, brickmaker, Washington south side adjoining the run, Ridgely's Addition. (This David Simmont would have had to be born about 1785-1790 to be listed in the 1824 Baltimore City Directory. As George W. Simmont, Sr. {7} was not born until November, 1869 this David Simmont is too old to be the father. Notice that the occupation is a brickmaker in many of these entries as is the case for many of the Simmont males.

1872 David, driver, 36 S. Paca
David, brickmaker, 365 Columbia

1875 David, brickmaker, 22 Washington Ave

As David and Harriet are both mentioned in the obituary of their son Samuel Simmont {251} they were living as of 16 March 1848. If either had been dead they would have been referred to as the 'late' David or Harriet (see page 201).

Frederick SIMMONT {217}² (David SIMMONT {278})¹ was born about 1812, in Baltimore, Maryland. He married Julia Ann CHAPMAN {219} about 1836. She was born 1813.

They had 6 children:

He is located in the 16th Ward of Baltimore City and is listed as a 48 year old white male with an occupation of Brick Maker. His real estate value was $1,100.00 and the value of his personal estate was estimated at $7,000.00. He was listed as being born in Baltimore, Maryland. In his household was his wife Julia Simmont {219} age 47, and children Amelia Simmont {220} age 30, Adelaide Simmont {221} age 18, Caroline Simmont {222} age 16, Laura Simmont {223} age 11, and Emma Simmont {224} age 4. 1860 Maryland Census Record for Frederick Simmont {217}

Frederick Simmont {217} has not yet been located in the 1870 Maryland Census nor in the 1880 Maryland Census. While the 1880 Maryland Census contains a Soundex which is a type of index only those families with children under the age of 10 years were included in the soundex. As all of the children were older than ten Frederick Simmont {217} was not in this soundex. While not impossible it is a difficult task to locate anyone in the voluminous census without an index or a soundex.

Death certificate says he was 76 years old at time of death, that he was born in Baltimore and his duration of residence in the City of Baltimore was 65 years. This leaves an 11 year period unaccounted for which could just be an oversight or could lead to the assumption that he was born in Baltimore County and spent the last 65 years of his life in Baltimore City. This appears to be the case as stated in his obituary notice.

Frederick Simmont {217} is the only person in this particular family who has the title of C.S.A. This is a universally accepted title of a person who was engaged in the American Civil War (1861-1865) and sided with the Confederacy - hence the designation of "Confederate States of America" (C.S.A.). Technically Frederick Simmont was not a soldier with any Confederate outfit and is not 'officially' a true C.S.A. However in my own personal databases in addition to officially confirmed soldiers I also add persons who were volunteer prison guards for the Confederacy, spies for the Confederacy or in this case a Confederate sympathizer who was imprisoned for helping the Southern cause. I have written to United States Department of the Interior, National Park Service at the Fort McHenry National Monument and Historic Shrine in Baltimore City, Maryland regarding Frederick Simmont; however at this writing they are unable to locate any information on his being imprisoned at Fort McHenry during the Civil War as a state prisoner. It is possible that his name was spelled differently (Semont, Seemont, Seamont, Simont, etc) or that they just overlooked his record.

[I am reprinting a photocopy of the actual will for Frederick Simmont even though it will be difficult to read. The actual will is slightly bigger than the pages of this book. It too is a little difficult to read. One demoralizing aspect is genealogy is that fact that you might spend months looking for a document that you know exists. However after finding the document you discover that it is so faded, crumbed, mutilated, that you can't even begin to read it. In many cases you discover that the handwriting is so bad or written so small that you are unable to decipher the document. I often must try and make a descent copy of the document and enlarge it several times before I even begin to try and read it.]

Jacob Henry SIMMONT {209} next married (2) Mary Jane BLACKBURN {230} about 1910. She was born January 1851, in Maryland.

No children have yet been identified.

Mary Jane Blackburn {230} died 25 February 1932, and was buried in Loudon Park Cemetery, Baltimore City, Maryland.

Obituary notice is found in the Baltimore Sun - 26 February 1932:

On February 25, 1932, Mary J. SIMMONT (nee Blackburn), aged 84 years, beloved wife of Jacob H. Simmont. Funeral services at her home, 409 Fourth Avenue, Lansdowne. Due notice later.

Obit for Mary J. Simmont (Blackburn) {230}

Her obituary confirms her husband was living at the time of her death or he would have been listed as the 'late' Jacob H. Simmont. It should be noted that obituary points to a birth year of about 1848 (if she was 84 years at the time of her death), not 1851.

Jacob Henry SIMMONT {209} died 25 March 1933, and was buried 28 March 1933, in Loudon Park Cemetery, Baltimore City, Maryland.

NOTES for Jacob Henry SIMMONT {209} follow: It appears that Jacob Henry Simmont was married twice. He is located in the 1880 Maryland Census (see page 86) with a wife Ann Simmont and in the 1900 Maryland Census with a wife Annie (see page 87). This corresponds to the marriage license that was issued in Baltimore City on 14 September 1874 to Georganna Stallings. This information was taken from issue book 1FR 1873-1880, page 384. Birth date take from death certificate. He is located in the 1920 Maryland Census (see page 87) with a his wife 'Mary J.'. Buried in Section R of Loudon Park Cemetery.

Located in the 1880 Maryland Census. He is located in the 173rd Enumeration District of Baltimore City and is listed as a 27 year old married white male who was born in Maryland. Others in his household include his wife Ann Simmont a 29 year old female born in Maryland and Margaret Simmont their 5 year old daughter who was also born in Maryland.

His occupation was listed as a brickmaker and both parents were born in Maryland. Also in the household were his wife Anne Simmont a 49 year old female born in Maryland and their daughter Margaret Simmont who was a 25 year old seamstress.

1900 Maryland Census Record for Jacob H. Simmont {209}

Located in the 1920 Maryland Census. Jacob is located living on Fourth Avenue in the 13th District of Baltimore County. He is listed as a 66 year old married male who is a homeowner. He and both parents are enumerated as being born in Maryland. His occupation was that of a foreman in a brick yard. The only other person in the household was his wife Mary J. Simmont who is listed as being 72 years old. This clearly indicates a second wife as the wife from the 1900 Maryland Census would have only been 69 years old and had the name of Anne Simmont.

Located in the Baltimore City Directory:

The below listings showing a Jacob 'W.' Simmont are probably an error in the Baltimore City Directory. It would appear this person is the Jacob H. Simmont in question. He is placed as the son of David F. Simmont, having been located with him at the same address in 1886. This is confirmed by his death certificate which lists his father as David F. Simmont {172} (see page 88).

Death certificate confirms David F. Simmont as father and shows Louisa Haine {303} as mother. The death certificate is very light and hard to reproduce. For that reason it is not included in this book. The informant was listed as Mrs. Margaret Hale of Washington Boulevard.

To date no obituary notice has been found for Jacob Henry Simmont {209}.

Descendants of David Simmont

David SIMMONT {368}⁴ (David F. SIMMONT {172}³, David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born 1857, in Maryland. He married Elizabeth {369} (Maiden name unknown) about 1878. She was born 1856, in Maryland.

They had 1 child:

Elizabeth SIMMONT {369} (Maiden name unknown) died after 1880. David SIMMONT {368} died after 1880.

NOTES for David SIMMONT {368} follow: David Simmont is placed as the son of David F. Simmont {172} and Louisa Haine {303} due to name association and the birth year. To this we add the tie in with the 1880 Maryland Census showing Simmonts and Henrickle on the same page.

1880 Maryland Census Record for David Simmont {368}

Descendants of David Simmont

Located in the 1880 Maryland Census. David Simmont is found in the 172nd Enumeration District of Baltimore City and is listed as a 23 year old married white male who was born in Maryland. Also in the household was his wife Elizabeth Simmont {369} who is listed as being 24 years old and their son Clarence Simmont {242}. The family was living at 379 Scott Street. This particular 1880 Maryland Census listing is extremely interesting. David Simmont {368} is living next door to Clement Henrickle and his wife and family. The one Henrickle daughter Ellen Priscilla Henrickle {8} who was living next door married George Washington Simmont, Sr. {7} who was the brother of David Simmont {368}. Of additional interest is the fact that two doors away from Clement Henrickle we find the family of Alexander Coleman and his wife Margareta A. Coleman who was born Margareta A. Hartlove. It was indeed a very small world on Scott Street in 1880. [NOTE: Both Clement B. W. Henrickle {70} and his father in law Alexander Coleman fought in the War Between the States on the Union Side from Maryland. As they are direct line ancestors of Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV and of all descendants of George Washington Simmont, Sr. {7} and his wife Ellen Priscilla Henrickle {8} they will be thoroughly documented in the next two books.]

For a complete listing of the various David Simmonts in the Baltimore City Directory see page 44.

Clarence SIMMONT {242}⁵ (David SIMMONT {368}⁴, David F. SIMMONT {172}³, David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born 6 August 1879, in Maryland. Clarence SIMMONT {242} died 18 November 1882, in Baltimore, Maryland.

NOTES for Clarence SIMMONT {242} follow: Located in 1880 Maryland Census with his parents (see page 90). This appears to be the same Clarence Simmont that died on November 18, 1882 at the age of 3 years, 3 months and 12 days.

Alfred T. SIMMONT {263}⁴ (David F. SIMMONT {172}³, David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born about 1862, in Maryland. He married Margaret HENRICKLE {215} about 1888.

They had 1 child:

M i. Alfred T. SIMMONT {190} b. 24 July 1889 d. 5 September 1957

NOTES for Margaret HENRICKLE {215} follow: Mother's name obtained from death certificate of son Alfred T. Simmont. There were at least two other instances where members of the Henrickle and Simmont families married. All involved Henrickle women and Simmont men. In the other two instances it is very easy to determine the ancestry of the Henrickle women. Both were daughters of Clement B. W. HENRICKLE {70} and Emma J. COLEMAN {71} his wife. However at this point the ancestry of Margaret HENRICKLE {215} has not been determined. Clement B. W. Henrickle {70} had a sister Margaret J. Henrickle who was born about 1848. She would have been about 14 years old than Alfred T. SIMMONT {263} but could certainly be his spouse.

It is believed the following Baltimore City Directory listings are for Margaret Henrickle {215} who married Alfred T. Simmont {263}:

NOTES for Alfred T. SIMMONT {263} follow: Birth date obtained from 1880 Maryland Census where he was located with family (see page 84). Listed as a brickmaker in that census and was 18 years old. Marriage date estimated from son's birth date. The other Alfred Simmont son of Alfred Simmont were not born until 1889.

Located in the Baltimore City Directory:

1883 Alfred, brickmaker, Washington Ave ext (Frederick, Jacob H. and Joseph Simmont were also listed at Washington Avenue Ext.; however it believed that the Washington Ave Ext address was that of the brick manufacturing plant and not a home address. This is because the listing for Frederick also includes an address clearly listed as 'Home'.

1885 Alfred T., brickmaker, boards 250 Washington Ave. (Jacob H. also at this address)

1886 Alfred T., brickmaker, 250 Washington Ave. (David F. and Jacob H. Simmont also at this address)

1889 Alfred, laborer, 1459 Washington Ave (Jacob H. Simmont at this address) {NOTE: This is the year the other Alfred and Alfred Simmont was born}

BOONE {202} about 1924. She was born 9 August 1907, in Maryland. He also went by the name of Alfred T. SIMMONT {190} and is referred to by that name on many occasions.

They had 1 child:

Mabel W. SIMMONT {202} (nee BOONE) died 1978, and was buried in Loudon Park Cemetery, Baltimore City, Maryland.

John T. Simmont's mother was the Mrs. Louisa Simmont mentioned with him in the 1887 Baltimore City Directory.

Marriage date estimated from births of children. Placed as the husband of Margaret Henrickle per her obituary (see page 95). Middle name of Thomas obtained from 1880 Maryland Census (see page 84). As he did not apparently die until 1945 it is unknown why he was not located with his wife and family in the 1920 Maryland Census. The only possible explanation I can come up with is that he was in World War I and therefore not listed with them.

George Washington SIMMONT, Sr. {7}⁴ (David F. SIMMONT {172}³, David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born 9 November 1869, in Baltimore City, Maryland. He married Ellen Priscilla HENRICKLE {8} about 1893, in Baltimore, Maryland; they divorced. She was born 25 July 1876, in Baltimore, Maryland, the daughter of Clement B. W. HENRICKLE {70} and Emma J. COLEMAN {71}.

They had 6 children:

M	i.	George Washington SIMMONT, Jr. {78}	b. 23 July 1894	d. 24 August 1960

NOTES for Ellen Priscilla HENRICKLE {8} follow: Birth year on her tombstone is incorrect. Ellen was always known as Ella.

Death certificate (53-2580) shows her as being born 25 July 1875. She is listed as a married white female living at 633 Wyeth Street in Baltimore. Her father is incorrectly listed as Theodore Henrickle and her mother is listed as Emma Coleman. (This is Emma J. Coleman {71}). The informant was her daughter Theresa Chick of the same address. Ellen's father was Clement B. W. Henrickle {70} as proved in the 1880 Maryland Census and in Clement's various Civil War pension application papers. There has never been any indication of a Theodore Henrickle at any time.

From a genealogical point of view death certificates are one of the most unreliable sources of information available but in many cases that might be the only piece of information we locate. The information on a death certificate is given at a very stressful time and often times the person giving the information has no idea of the proper information. Also it is possible that the person writing down the information records it incorrectly as is the case with many of the Census records. In the above situation Ella's father Clement B. W.

Descendants of David Simmont

Henrickle {70} died in 1881 which was 33 years before the informant Theresa Rose Simmont {11} was born.

This George Simmont's father was George Washington Simmont, Jr. {78} who died in 1960. Therefore the 1964 entry is definitely for his son as both show the same employment at the same company. As the 1961 and 1964 entry would have to be for George W. Simmont, son of George W. Simmont, Jr. it is strange they would list him as George W. Simmont, 'Jr.' in 1964. He would actually be George W. Simmont, III.

Harry SIMMONT {94}⁶ (George Washington SIMMONT, Jr. {78}⁵, George Washington SIMMONT, Sr. {7}⁴, David F. They had 1 child:

Anna E. SIMMONT {354}⁴ (David F. SIMMONT {172}³, David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born 1875, in Maryland.

NOTES for Anna E. SIMMONT {354} follow: Located in the 1880 Maryland Census (see page 84).

William F. SIMMONT, Jr. {281}³ (David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born September 1845, in Maryland. He married Sarah {325} (Maiden name unknown) about 1867. She was born in Maryland.

They had 3 children:

M	i.	Joseph SIMMONT {265}	b. November 1867	d. after 1900
M	ii.	Harrison T. SIMMONT {290}	b. about 1869	d. after 1929
M	iii.	William F. SIMMONT, Jr. {282}	b. 8 June 1877	d. 11 May 1906

NOTES for Sarah {325} follow: Information obtained from the death certificate of her son William F. Simmont, Jr. {282} (see page 184). Unable to read her maiden name although it could be Gravy.

NOTES for William F. SIMMONT, Jr. {281} follow: Marriage date estimate from children's births. This is believed to be the William Simmont who is located in the 1900 Maryland Census living on E. Fayette Street. He was listed as a 54 year old white male. The other William Simmont of that era, William Simmont {261}, son of David Simmont {278} died on 24 August 1899.

This is also the William Simmont located in the 1920 Maryland Census living with son Harry T. Simmont {290} and wife Mary C. Simmont {291}. Also in that household were John Betch {294}, and his wife Annie Betch {293}, aged 27, who was the daughter of Harry T. Simmont {290}, aged 51, and his wife Mary C. Simmont {291}, aged 52. Also living in that household was Annie's husband and family and her brother Harry Simmont {243}, aged 25.

This William Simmont is not placed as the son of Frederick Simmont {217} due to the fact that he was still living in 1881 when Frederick Simmont {217} wrote his will. Frederick Simmont bequeathed portions of his estate to his children and William Simmont {281} was not mentioned. This William F. Simmont, Jr. {281} is too old to be a son of Frederick Simmont's son Edward Simmont {218}, yet is found living with Edward Simmont in the 1872 Baltimore City Directory which is this William's first appearance. Frederick Simmont {217} had a brother John Simmont {279} and another brother David Simmont {252}. This William Simmont is placed as the son of David Simmont {252} and it is believed that his full name was William Frederick Simmont being named for his father's brothers William Simmont {261} and Frederick Simmont {217}.

There are several William Simmonts located in the Baltimore City Directory. A complete listing follows: The matter of William Simmont is extremely complicated at various times.

(As this list is quite lengthy and complicated I am only printing the Baltimore City Directory entries for William Simmont at one time, in this location. The reader will be instructed to refer to this location when future William Simmonts are cited in this book.)

- William, turnkey, 142 Scott {William, son of David Simmont [261]}
- [At 142 Scott Street in 1882 was Samuel Simmont, brickmaker.]*

At first glance the 1882 listings appears to be very bizarre. We have been following a William F., brickmaker

Descendants of David Simmont

{son of Frederick} and a William, turnkey (police) {son of David} over the last 12 years. Initially we notice both the brickmaker and turnkey at the same address. However up to this point in time the occupation of William Simmont, Jr. [283], son of William Simmont [261] has not been listed. This, in fact, is the first listing for William Simmont [283] since 1873. It should be noted that this appears to be the last Baltimore City Directory listing for William Simmont, turnkey [261], who died 24 August 1899.

- 1883 no listings for William Simmont
- 1884 William, brickmaker, 142 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
- 1885 William F., boards 88 George {William F., son of David [281]}
William, boards, 142 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
- 1886 William, brickmaker, 142 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William, brickmaker, 108 W. Townsend {William F., son of David [281]}
- 1887 William, brickmaker, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]} (This and the listings for the next several years are difficult to prove since there is only one William mentioned and at a different address than before. To prove this person we must jump ahead to the 1890 listing which contains several William Simmonts. In that listing two are shown to be William F. Simmont. The other a William Simmont is listed as the 522 Scott Street. This same William Simmont is at the same address in 1887 which provides the clue to the correct William Simmont.)
- 1888 William, brickmaker, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
- 1889 William, brickmaker, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William, laborer, 1713 Division {William F., son of David [281]}
- 1890 William, brickmaker, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William F., brickmaker 1710 Division {William F., son of David [281]}
William F., Jr., clerk, 1710 Division {William F., Jr., son of William F. [282]}
- 1891 William, brickmaker, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William F., brickmaker, 1710 Division {William F., son of David [281]}
William F., Jr., clerk, 1710 Division {William F., Jr., son of William F. [282]}
- 1892 William, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William F., 522 Scott {William F., son of David [281]}
William F., Jr. 522 Scott {William F., Jr., son of William F. [282]}

The 1892 entry appears rather bizarre and could be an error in printing although it is possibly correct. The fact that no occupations appear from these William Simmont makes it even more difficult to understand. The obvious confusion is the fact that we apparently have 3 different William Simmonts at the same address. We must also consider the fact that they are related (which also has been a known fact). William Simmont [283] is the first cousin of William F. Simmont, Sr. [281]. Their common ancestor is their grandfather David Simmont.

- 1893 William, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William F., brickmaker, 1415 N. Fremont Ave {William F., son of Frederick Simmont [281]}
- 1894 William, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William F., clerk, 550 Wilson {William F. Jr., son of William F. [282]}
- 1895 William, whipmaker, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William F., laborer, 550 Wilson {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}
- 1896 William, whipmaker, 522 Scott {William, Jr., son of William Simmont [283]}
William F., brickmaker, 550 Wilson {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}
- 1897 William, 776 Columbia Avenue {William, Jr. son of William [283]}

Descendants of David Simmont

William F., brickmaker, 550 Wilson {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}

William F., driver, 776 Columbia Ave {William F., Jr., son of William F. [282]}

The situation in 1897 is very difficult to understand. Again we find 3 William Simmonts with 2 of them listed as William F. Simmont. That would be no problem if both William F. Simmonts were at the same address; however we find a William and a William F. on Columbia Ave and a William F. on Wilson St. As the other William Simmonts in the Simmont database are either not born at this time or are too young to be in the Baltimore City Directory we must assume that William Simmont, Jr. (son of William Simmont, son of David Simmont) and William F. Simmont (son of David Simmont, son of David Simmont) are living at the same address.

1898 William, 776 Columbia {William, Jr., son of William [283]}

William F., brickmaker, 550 Wilson {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}

1899 William, 776 Columbia Ave {William, Jr., son of William [283]}

William, butcher, 1925 Pennsylvania Ave {William F., Jr., son of William F. [282]}

William F., brickmaker, 5 N. Poppleton {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}

NOTE: William Simmont (261), son of David Simmont died on 24 August 1899

The 1899 entry is another strange listing for the William Simmonts. We find a William Simmont listed as a butcher living at 1925 Pennsylvania Avenue. At no other time do we locate any William Simmont being a butcher. However we do locate William F. Simmont at 1625 Pennsylvania Avenue in 1903 and 1904. As before the other William Simmonts in the Simmont database are either not yet born or too young to be listing in the Baltimore City Directory of 1899. It is therefore assumed this listing is for the same William F. Simmont of the 1903 and 1904 Baltimore City Directory.

It should also be noted that the 1899 entry appears to be the last for William Simmont [283], who had been recorded as living at 776 Columbia Ave. I believe he died in 1898/1899. In the 1900 Maryland Census a Julia Simmont is located at that address with another family. Her maiden name was not Simmont and it is believed she was his wife as the only other Julia in the database was Julia Ann (b. 1813), wife of Frederick Simmont.

1900 William F., brickmaker, 1412 Patterson Ave {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}

1901 No listings for William Simmont

1902 William F., brickmaker, 631 N. Paca {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}

1903 William F., brickmaker, 1625 Pennsylvania Ave {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}

1904 William F., brickmaker, 1625 Pennsylvania Ave {William F., Sr., son of David Simmont [281]}

I am not sure when William F. Simmont, Sr., son of David Simmont died. However it appears he was born about 1835/1845. As this is the last listing appearing in the Baltimore City Directory for a William F. Simmont, brickmaker, I am assuming he probably retired or died shortly afterwards. He would have been 60/70 years of age.

1905 William F., laborer, 2037 Fairmount Ave E. {William F., Jr., son of William F., Sr. [282]}

1905 William F., laborer, 510 Otterbein {William F., Jr., son of William F., Sr. [282]}

1906 William F., laborer, 510 Otterbein {William F., Jr., son of William F., Sr. [282]}

1907 William, fireman, 1539 Division {William F. Simmont, son of Harrison T. Simmont [245]}

This is the first appearance for a William Simmont, fireman, and the first time a Simmont has been located on Division Street. Noticing a William F. Simmont, fireman in the 1908 and 1909 directory I it would be very easy to assume this particular William F. Simmont is actually William F. Simmont III. However the problem lies in the fact that this William Simmont is located living with Harrison T. (Harry) in 1908, 1909, 1912, 1920, 1922, 1923, etc. While it does appear that he is William F. Simmont it does not appear that he is William F. Simmont III, but rather William F. Simmont son of Harrison T. Simmont [290] and brother of Harrison Simmont [243]. William F. Simmont would be about 16/17 for this first entry.

Descendants of David Simmont

- 1908 William F., fireman, 7 Toone (with Harrison T., foreman) {William F. Simmont, son of Harrison T. Simmont [245]}
- 1909 William F., fireman, 3230 Toone (with Harry T., foreman) {William F. Simmont, son of Harrison T. Simmont [245]}
- 1910 No listings for William Simmont
- 1911 No listings for William Simmont
- 1912 William, fireman, 1300 N. Stricker {William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr [292]}
William, foreman, 3230 Toone (with Harrison A., laborer & Harrison T.) {William F. Simmont, son of Harrison T. Simmont [245]}

This is a very difficult listing. The previous listings for a fireman appear to be for William F. Simmont [245] son of Harrison T. Simmont. The 1909 and 1910 listing clearly state William 'F.' Simmont. It is believed he later became a foreman. However I believe this is another William Simmont and am unsure of the connection with the other Simmonts. At no time does this 'new' William Simmont appear at the same address as any other Simmont. He could in actuality be the son of any Simmont of the era but is more than likely the son of a William Simmont or the grandson of a William Simmont. We do notice in later listings that he is another William F. Simmont.

- 1913 William, fireman, h. 1514 N. Stricker {William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr. [292]}
- 1914 William, fireman, 1514 N. Stricker {William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr. [292]}
William F., foreman, h. 1019 Bouldin {William F. Simmont, son of Harrison T. Simmont [245]}
- 1915 William, fireman, 1514 N. Stricker {William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr. [292]}
William F., foreman, h. 1019 Bouldin {William F. Simmont, son of Harrison T. Simmont [245]} (It should be noted that this William had lived at 3230 Toone in 1912. At that address in 1915 was George, broommaker, Harrison A., foreman, and Harrison T., broommaker
- 1916 William F., fireman, h. 1514 N. Stricker {William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr. [292]}
- 1917 William E., student, 542 N. Carrollton Ave. {William E. Simmont [250] This is the first entry for William E. Simmont. He was born in 1902 according to the 1920 Maryland Census. He is located in the 1920 Census as the stepson of Lawrence M. Swain. At no time is he located with other Simmonts in the Baltimore City Directory. It is believed that he is only listed in 1917 and 1920.
William F., fireman, 1828 Pennsylvania Ave {William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr. [292]}
- 1918-9 William F., fireman, 1828 Pennsylvania Ave William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr. [292]}
- 1920 William, clerk, 542 N. Carrollton Ave {William E. Simmont [250]}
William F., 1331 S. Clinton (with Harry A. and Harry T.) {William F. Simmont III, son of William F., Jr. [292]} Without creating another William F. Simmont it would appear this would be the only likely candidate.
William F., superintendent, h. 29 N. Linwood Ave {William F. Simmont, son of Harrison T. Simmont [245]} NOTE: This address is confirmed in the 1920 Maryland Census.

- 1913 Mamie Mrs., 1435 Federal

I can not connect any other Simmons to the above addresses. She is clearly listed as a Mrs. Mamie

Descendants of David Simmont

Simmont, therefore Simmont was not her maiden name.

Joseph SIMMONT {265} died after 1900.

NOTES for Joseph SIMMONT {265} follow: It can not be completely documented where Joseph Simmont fits into the Simmont family tree. He is placed as the son of William F. Simmont, Sr. {281} due to his birth year being close to the other known children.

Located in the 1900 Maryland Census. He is listed as living in Ward 22 of the 283rd Enumeration District of Baltimore City and is recorded as a 32 year old white male being born November 1867 in Maryland. Both of his parents are also listed as being born in Maryland. His occupation is listed as a Teamster and he had been married for 15 years with 4 children born to the marriage and all still living. Listed in his household was his wife Margaret Simmont {266} age 30 born December 1869 in Maryland. 1900 Maryland Census Record of Joseph Simmont {265}

The only entry for a Joseph Simmont in the Baltimore City Directory is the following:
1883 Joseph, brick manufacturer, Washington Ave. ext Home: 205 Scott

It should also be noted that in the 1882 Business section of the Baltimore City Directory Joseph Simmont is listed as a Brick Manufacturer at 205 Scott Street. I was unable to locate any other Simmonts at this address on Scott at any other time; however they lived all up and down Scott Street at various addresses.

Emma SIMMONT {267}⁵ (Joseph SIMMONT {265}⁴, William F. SIMMONT, Sr. {281}³, David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born May 1887. Emma SIMMONT {267} died after 1900.

NOTES for Emma SIMMONT {267} follow: Located in the 1900 Maryland Census with family (see page 155).

Alfred T. SIMMONT {214}⁵ (Joseph SIMMONT {265}⁴, William F. SIMMONT, Sr. {281}³, David SIMMONT {252}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born July 1889, in Maryland. He married Catherine M. {236} (Maiden name unknown) about 1911. She was born about 1894, in Maryland.

They had 3 children:

M	i.	Clifton W. SIMMONT {237}	b. 1912	d. after 1920
M	ii.	Alfred H. SIMMONT {238}	b. 1913
F	iii.	Margaret L. SIMMONT {239}	b. 1919	d. after 1920

Catherine M. {236} died after 1959.

NOTES for Catherine M. {236} follow: Both parents born Maryland according to 1900 Maryland Census.

Alfred T. SIMMONT {214} died after 1959.

NOTES for Alfred T. SIMMONT {214} follow: 1900 Maryland Census with points to birth of July 1889. It is strongly believed that there are two different persons with an identical name of Alfred T. Simmont living in the same time frame. It appears that both were born in July of 1889! The various incorrect spellings and intermingling in the various census reports and the Baltimore City Directory really compounds the difficulty in keeping the two separated. It has been noted that an Alfred T. Simmont from Maryland served in the United States Army in World War II. It is unknown if this is that particular individual.

The information for this Alfred C. Simmont (note that the census record lists his middle initial as 'C'.) was taken from the 1920 Maryland Census. He was living in 367th Enumeration District at 1241 Sargeant Street in Baltimore City and was listed as 27 years old white male with he and both parents born Maryland. He is enumerated as a Laborer in the Factory Industry. In his household were his wife Carrie Simmont {236} age 26 born Maryland, and children Clifton W. Simmont {237} age 9 years, Alfred H. Simmont {238} age 7 years, and Margaret L. Simmont {239} age 1 year.

To complicate the matter of Alfred Simmont we also find in the 1920 Maryland Census a Mrs. Margarete R. Simmont age 51 years living on Ward Street in Baltimore City. With her were: Alfred T. Simmont age 29 years employed as a driver, Harriet Simmont age 18 years, Frank T. Simmont age 16 years employed as a helper, Margarete Simmont age 14 years, Bertha Simmont age 12 years, Robert Simmont age 9 years, and Mary M. Simmont age 5 years. This Margaret R. Simmont was actually Margaret R. Henrickle {73} who married John T. Simmont {98} who was the son of David Simmont {172}.

There have been various Alfret / Alfred Simmonts in the Baltimore City Directory at various times: Obviously these earlier years can not be this particular Alfred Simmont. It is strongly believed that the middle initial is 'T' and that there are two different Alfred T. Simmonts living at the same time which really complicate matters especially where you consider they were not father and son.

1883	Alfred, brickmaker, Washington Ave ext. (6 yrs before birth of) Alfred T. SIMMONT {214}

- 1922 Alfred T., chauffeur, 1156 Ward (Charles W. {Margaret}, packer, at same address; also Mrs. Margaret, at same address)

It is believed that none of the above listings are for this Alfred T. Simmont. The only listings believed for him are:

- 1955 Alfred T. (Cath M.), mach opr, Western Electric, h. 3445 Yardley Dr
- 1957 Alfred T., (Catherine) maintenance Western Electric, h. 3455 Yardley
- 1959 Alfred T., (Catherine M., stock collector Western Electric, 3455 Yardley Drive

This is based upon the fact that the other Alfred T. Simmont died in 1957 and also on the fact that Alfred T. Simmont's wife was Carrie (a derivative of Catherine) in the 1920 Maryland Census.

Death Certificate for William F. Simmont, Jr. {282}

No obituary notice could be found for William F. Simmont, Jr. {282}; however the following article was located in the Baltimore Sun of 12 May 1906:

TAKES STRYCHNINE AND DIES

WILLIAM SIMONT BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN MENTALLY AFFECTED

While temporarily insane, it is believed from overwork William Simont, 29 years old, 555 Laurens Street, swallowed a quantity of strychnine yesterday morning and Coroner Silas Baldwin gave a certificate of suicidal intent. He is now conducting an investigation of the circumstances under which Mr. Simont purchased the drug.

Mr. Simont was the son of Mr. William Simont, 1625 Pennsylvania Avenue, and had been in the employ of electric light and telephone companies for several years. More than a year ago he complained of an affection of the brain, the result of the sun, and since that time had on several occasions been committed to an asylum for treatment. He had apparently recovered and had been working steadily until last Tuesday, when he returned to his home and told his wife his head and stomach felt badly. He did not work the following day nor Thursday, but when he arose in the morning he said we was feeling quite well, and little anxiety was felt about his condition.

Mrs. Simont left the house early to call on friends and her husband requested her not to return to prepare lunch, as he could get what he wanted himself.

Less than an hour after Mrs. Simont left the house Simont called another tenant, Mr. Joseph Forman, and told him that he was going to die. His appearance bore out his words, and Dr. Charles G. Wheland, 1827 Pennsylvania avenue, was summoned. To the physician Simont confessed that he had taken strychnine and said he had purchased it from a druggist on Pennsylvania avenue. He died shortly after the doctor arrived.

The body was taken to the home of an aunt, Mrs. Caroline Glass, 776 West Hamburg street.

In the cold and silent tomb;
And we are left here weeping
In this dark world of gloom.

is placed as the son of David Simmont due to William's birth year and with David Simmont being the only possible father. It appears that William is buried next to his nephew Samuel Simmont {284} who is clearly listed as the son of David Simmont {252} & Elizabeth {241} (Maiden name unknown).

William Simmont is also placed as the son of David Simmont to due his occupation as a brickmaker. This appears to be the William Simmont who in the Baltimore City Superior Court of 9 April 1852 moved to have a partnership dissolved with Edward Browning. He cited his case against Edward Browning and John Young. The court documents cite that William Simmont entered into a partnership with Edward Browning for the purpose of engaging in the manufacture of bricks the profit of which was to be shared equally. It went on to say that William Simmont was an experienced brick maker having been engaged in said business and having a brickyard with a kiln and a brickshed. Edward Browning had no experience and only put up capital in the business. The court allowed that the partnership be dissolved.

Death Certificate for Julia Ann Simmont (324)

Descendants of David Simmont

William SIMMONT, Jr. {283}³ (William SIMMONT {261}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born September 1845. He married Julia {244} (Maiden name unknown). She was born August 1844, in Maryland.

They had 2 children:

- | | | | | |
|---|-----|-----------------------|---------------|---------------|
| F | i. | Anne E. SIMMONT {450} | b. about 1867 | d. after 1870 |
| F | ii. | Agnes SIMMONT {451} | b. about 1869 | d. after 1870 |

Julia {244} died after 1920.

NOTES for Julia {244} follow: Located in the 1870 Maryland Census with husband William Simmont, Jr. She was listed as Elizabeth, not Julia. She was listed as a 23 year old white female setting her birth about 1847. Also living in the household was a Susan Smith, a 20 year old white female who was a seamstress. It is possible that Susan Smith was her sister and that Julia (or Elizabeth's) maiden name was Smith. It should be noted that Frederick Simmont was married to a Julia Ann; however her birth was about 1813.

NOTES for William SIMMONT, Jr. {283} follow: Located in the 1870 Maryland Census living next door his parents in the 16th Ward of Baltimore City. William was listed as a 23 year old brickmaker. His wife was listed as Elizabeth (rather than Julia) and was 23 years old. Also listed were a daughter Anne E. Simmont {450}, 3 years old, another daughter Agnes Simmont {451}, 1 year old, and Susan Smith a 20 year old seamstress who was probably the sister of wife Julia.

NOTES for Anne E. SIMMONT {450} follow: Located in the 1870 Maryland Census with family. Listed as a 3 year old white female (see page 192).

NOTES for Agnes SIMMONT {451} follow: Located in the 1870 Maryland Census with family. Listed as a 1 year old white female (see page 192).

Caroline SIMMONT {452}³ (William SIMMONT {261}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born about 1851, in Maryland. Caroline SIMMONT {452} died after 1870.

NOTES for Caroline SIMMONT {452} follow: Located in the 1870 Maryland Census with family (see page 188).

Sarah C. SIMMONT {453}³ (William SIMMONT {261}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born about 1855, in Maryland. Sarah C. SIMMONT {453} died after 1870.

NOTES for Sarah C. SIMMONT {453} follow: Located in the 1870 Maryland Census with family (see page 188).

Samuel A. SIMMONT, Sr. {285}³ (William SIMMONT {261}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born 19 December 1858, in Baltimore City, Maryland. His wife was unknown.

They had 1 child:

M i. Samuel A. SIMMONT, Jr. {286} b. September 1854 d. about 1926

Tombstone for Samuel Simmont, Sr. {285}

Descendants of David Simmont

NOTES for Samuel A. SIMMONT, Sr. {285} follow: It should be noted that the gravestone appears as Samuel H. Simmont. This gravestone has since been grown over with grass.

There are a few different Samuel Simmonts in the Baltimore City Directory. One, who always went by Samuel Simmont appears to be the son of David F. Simmont {172}. Another, Samuel A. Simmont is placed as the son of William Simmont. I cannot definitely place him at the same address at any one time, but he continues to work in the brickmaking field.

Located in the Baltimore City Directory:

- 1878 Samuel, laborer, 22 Washington Ave (with David, watchman, and David F. brickmoulder)
- 1879 Samuel, laborer, 375 Scott (with David, brickmaker, and David F, brickmoulder)
- 1881 Samuel, brickmaker, 142 Scott (with William, turnkey who appears to be his first cousin)
- 1882 Samuel, brickmaker, 142 Scott

The above entries appear to be for Samuel Simmont, son of David Simmont and first cousin to Samuel A. Simmont.

It would appear that the above is the Samuel Simmont son of William Simmont for the following reasons. The last Baltimore City Directory entry is for 1882 which would have been compiled in 1881. Samuel Simmont died on 12 December 1881. The death certificate states his occupation as a brickmaker which is confirmed above. Also he is shown as living at 142 Scott Street which is also confirmed. His obituary notice in the Wednesday December 14, 1881 issue of the Morning Sun stated that he was the youngest son of William and the late Betsy Ann Simmont and that the funeral would be from his sister's residence on 142 Scott Street. The death certificate states his name as Samuel H. Simmont not Samuel A. Simmont.

1926 Samuel A. (Emma), 1207 S. Carey

The next year we find:

1927 Martha E. (widow Samuel A.), 1207 S. Carey

Located as Samuel SEMONT {286} in the 1880 Maryland Census. He is located in the 172nd Enumeration District of Baltimore City and is listed as a 25 year old married white male living at 496 Cross Street. He was born in Maryland and were both parents and his occupation was that of a brickmaker. In the household were his wife, who was listed as Emma Simmont, (who is believed to be Martha E. {289}). It is possible that Martha E.'s middle name was Emma. She was 24 years old and daughter Bertha Simmont {347} was 1 year old. It should be noted that he was found living at that address in the 1882 Baltimore City Directory.

Located as Samuel A. SEMONT {286} in the 1900 Maryland Census. He is located living at 1278 Stockholm Street in the 283rd Enumeration District of Baltimore City and is listed as a 45 year old white male born September 1854 and married for 21 years. With him was his wife Martha E. {289}, a white female born April 1855. She was the mother of 7 children. Their children included Bertha L. Simmont {347}, a single daughter born October 1880; Samuel A. Simmont, III {348} a son born May 1880; a daughter Jennie Simmont {349} born October 1883; David Simmont {350} born April 1885; Alfred Simmont {351} born September 1892; and Minnie Simmont {352} born March 1894. There is a conflict with Bertha L. Simmont born October 1880 and Samuel A. Simmont born May 1880. Both are listed as being 19 years old but both could not be born in 1880 only 5 months apart. As Bertha L. Simmont is listed before Samuel and all of the children appear to be in order I believe that she was probably born October 1879 or before. It should be noted that he was living at that address in the 1893 Baltimore City Directory.

NOTES for Samuel A. SIMMONT, III {348} follow: Located in the 1900 Maryland Census with parents (see page 196). His birth was cited as May 1880 yet he was listed as being 19 years old. He appears to be located in the 1920 Maryland Census married with his own family. He is found living at 1251 Sargeant Street in the 367th Enumeration District of Baltimore City and is cited as being 38 years old pointing to a May 1881 or 1882 birthdate. A hardcopy of this census entry is in the file and very clear. However the writing is very difficult to decipher and I am not sure of the names of some of the children. He is again cited as Samuel SEAMONT {348}. His occupation is listed as being a laborer in an ice company. While possibly not connected it should be remembered that Edward Simmont {218} and Oliver C. Simmont {207} were involved and probably owners of the Simmont Ice Company. Also listed was his wife Jessie M. {363} age 37; daughter Eunice Simmont {364} age 11; Marion A. Simmont {365} age 6; Samuel B. Simmont {367} age 2 and another child who was age 5. I was unable to determine the name or the sex of the other child.

Fitzhugh Lee GAUER {359}⁴ (Ida M. SIMMONT {334}³, William SIMMONT {261}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born April 1897, in Maryland.

NOTES for Fitzhugh Lee GAUER {359} follow: Located in the 1900 Maryland Census with family (see page 190). Obviously named for either Gen. Fitzhugh 'Fitz' Lee, nephew of Commanding General Robert E. Lee of the Army of Northern Virginia in the War Between The States or named after Gen. William Henry Fitzhugh 'Rooney' Lee, second eldest son of Commanding General Robert E. Lee. It is very possible that Fitzhugh Lee's father served under one of these two Lee Generals in the Civil War. Thus far I have been unable to find anyone by the surname of Gauer from Maryland who served for the Confederacy.

Mary A. SIMMONT {254}² (David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born about 1820. She married John SPEIGHTS {255} 17 August 1843, in Baltimore City, Maryland.

They had 1 child:

F i. Mary E. SPEIGHTS {256} b. about 1844 d. 11 August 1847

John SPEIGHTS {255} died after 1847.

NOTES for John SPEIGHTS {255} follow: Middle initial either S. or T.

Mary A. SIMMONT {254} died after 1847.

NOTES for Mary A. SIMMONT {254} follow: Mary A. Simmont {254} added as a daughter of David Simmont {278} due to the date of this marriage. She would have been too old to have been a child of one of the brothers. The marriage was recorded in the Baltimore Sun. Mary A. Simmont m. John S. Speights, 17 August 1843. (Reported in 30 August 1843, p. 2).

Mary E. SPEIGHTS {256}³ (Mary A. SIMMONT {254}², David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born about 1844. Mary E. SPEIGHTS {256} died 11 August 1847, in Baltimore City, Maryland.

Samuel SIMMONT {251}² (David SIMMONT {278}¹) was born about 1837, in Baltimore, Maryland. Samuel SIMMONT {251} died 16 March 1848, in Baltimore, Maryland.

NOTES for Samuel SIMMONT {251} follow: It is very possible that this particular Samuel Simmont, although clearly listed as the son of David & Harriet Simmont is too young to be their son. However the obituary notice should be correct in citing the age as 11, setting a date of birth of about 1837. It is certainly possible that he could be their child, born very late in their marriage which could possibly account for frailty as mentioned in the obituary notice. He is of the proper age to be a son of David his brother. It is believed that his brother David Simmont {252} also had a son Samuel Simmont {284}.

On the 16th instant, SAMUEL, son of David and Harriet Simmont, aged 11 years. It is seldom that one of his age exemplifies all the Christian graces in their daily walk and conversation as he did. From the time he could creep, he has been a praying child; and at the age of seven he was enrolled as a member of a class meeting, in which he regularly met and gave in his testimony for Jesus. — To his church and Sunday-school as well as his class, he was ardently attached, from which he never was absent without a just cause. On the last night of his life, while his little frail body was racked with suffering, he asked some of his friends if they loved Jesus? and straightway commenced his favorite hymn: "I do love Jesus—his name's so sweet." When asked if he was willing to die, he said he would rather live for his mother's sake, but the will of his Saviour be done. Thus, on the above date, Samuel fell asleep in Jesus, to awake on the morning of the resurrection; when the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven, with a shout and with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trump of God. Wherefore, parents and friends comfort one another with these words. * S.

Obituary of Samuel Simmont {251}

Obituary notice found in the Baltimore Sun Obituary of 28 March 1848, page 2:

On the 16th instant, Samuel Simmont, son of David and Harriet Simmont, aged 11 years. It is seldom that one of his age exemplified all the Christian graces in their daily walk and conversation as he did. From the time he could lisp, he has been a praying child; and at the age of seven he was enrolled as a member of a class meeting, in which he regularly met and gave in his testimony for Jesus. To his church and Sunday school as well as his class, he was ardently attached, from which he never was absent without a just cause. On the last night of his life, while his little frail body was racked with suffering, he asked some of his friends if they loved Jesus and straightway commenced his favorite hymn "I Do Love Jesus - His Name's So Sweet". When asked if he was willing to die, he said he would rather live for his mother's sake, but the will of his Savior be done. Thus, on the above date, Samuel fell asleep in Jesus, to awake on the morning of the resurrection; when the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven, with a shout and with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trump of God. Wherefore, parents and friends comfort one another with these words.

It is a very comforting thought to know I am related to someone who had the ability to write such a beautiful obituary notice and to know that I am related to someone like Samuel Simmont (251)

The reader is urged to check alternate spellings of names and to carefully examine all entries. For example: R.L. Orrell, Reverdy L. Orrell, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, R.L. Orrell, Sr., Reverdy L. Orrell, Sr., and Reverdy Lewin Orrell, Sr. could (but might not) be the same person. Often times a name is spelled several different ways. For example: Adaline Simmont, Adeline Simmont, and Addie Simmont are possibly the same person. Also there are many times where a person's name is spelled differently within the same document. In those cases I have recorded the document exactly as I found it. The only times I have corrected the document is in those cases where I positively can prove the error. Also remember to check for nicknames such as Reb Orrell.

When searching for females please remember to search for maiden names, married names and sometimes second marriage names.

The reader is instructed to check each page carefully. There are many instances where a name is listed several times on the same page.
